

Political participation: evaluation

110 responses

Publish analytics

POLITICS1: I have learned about my country's recent history and other European countries' recent histories.

85 responses

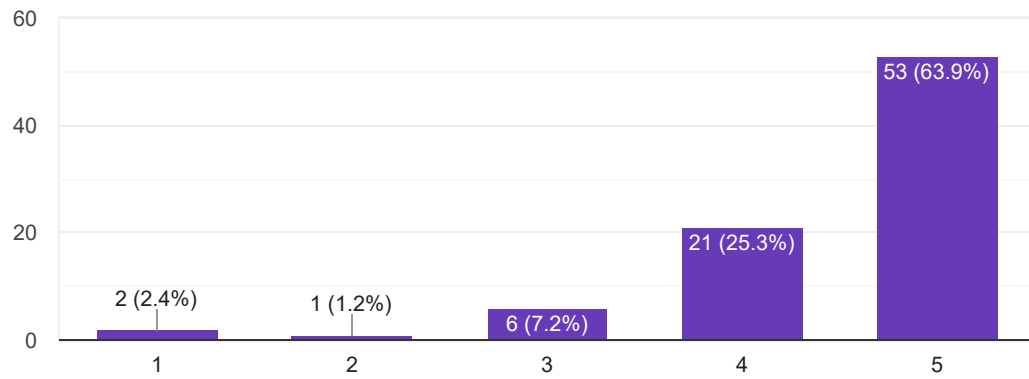

POLITICS2: I feel that now I can talk to the principal about how to improve our school.

48 responses

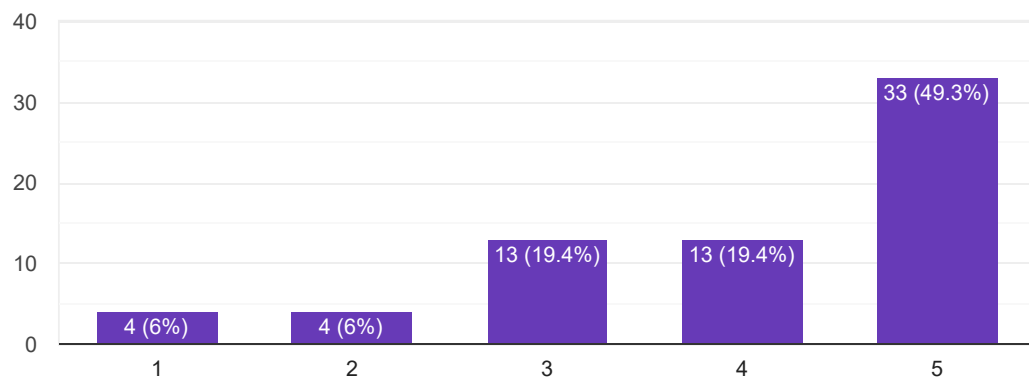

POLITICS3: I understand the difference between facts, opinions and fake news in the media,

83 responses

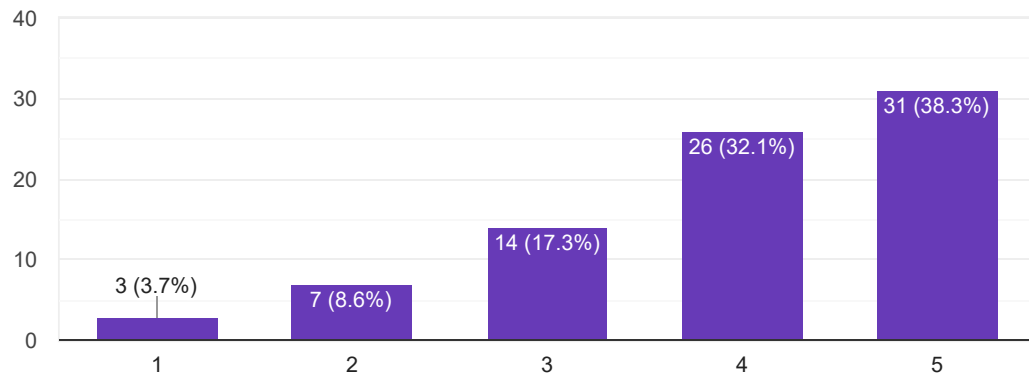

POLITICS4: I felt more engaged in politics during the press conference with a politician.

67 responses

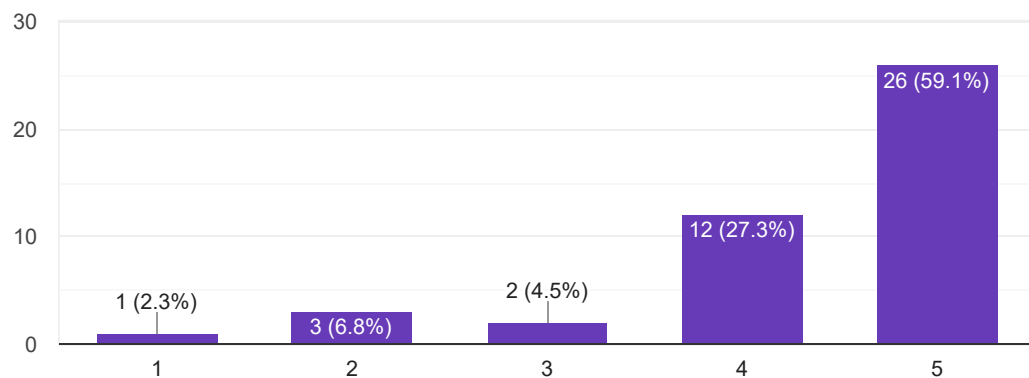

POLITICS5: After the discussion on Padlet between cafe owners and government officials, I feel that I can defend my position on something.

81 responses

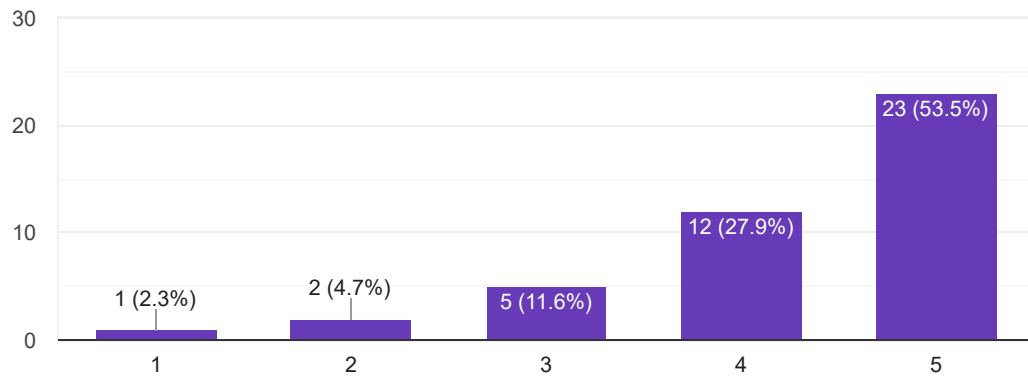

ONLY FOR THE MOBILITY PARTICIPANTS: I am now more familiar with the key terms related to citizenship and democracy.

44 responses

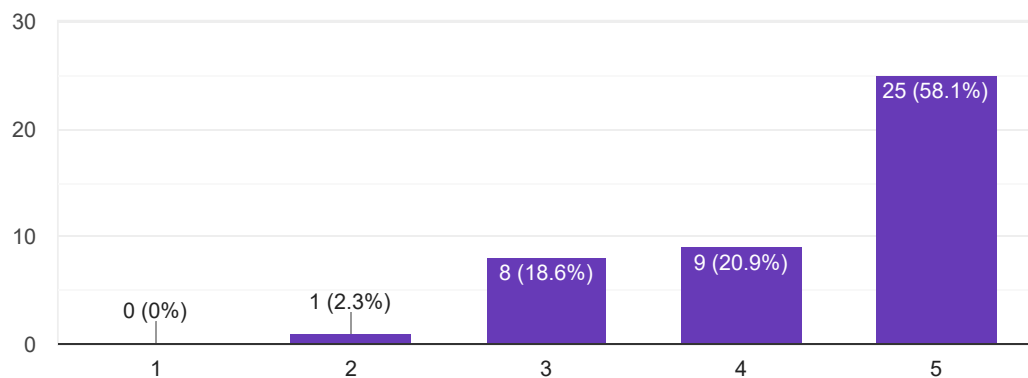

ONLY FOR THE MOBILITY PARTICIPANTS: I am now more aware of the cults of personality in the past and their contemporary remnants.

43 responses

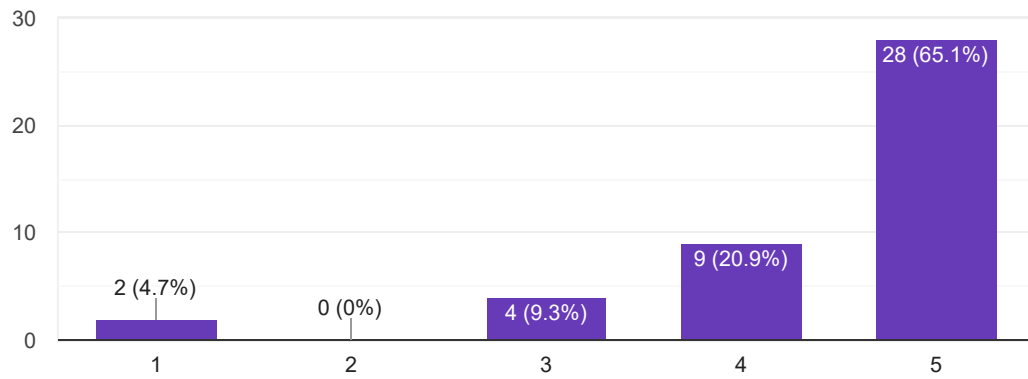

ONLY FOR THE MOBILITY PARTICIPANTS: I am now more aware of how media shapes my perception.

43 responses

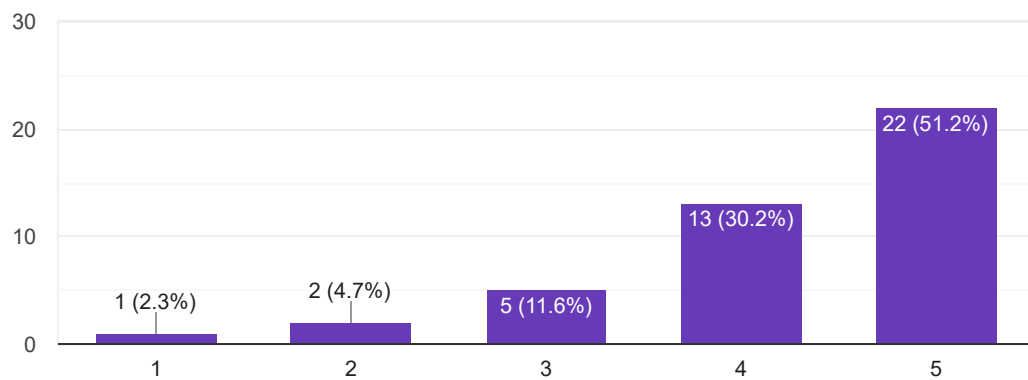

ONLY FOR THE MOBILITY PARTICIPANTS: I have learned about other countries and cultures during the mobility.

43 responses

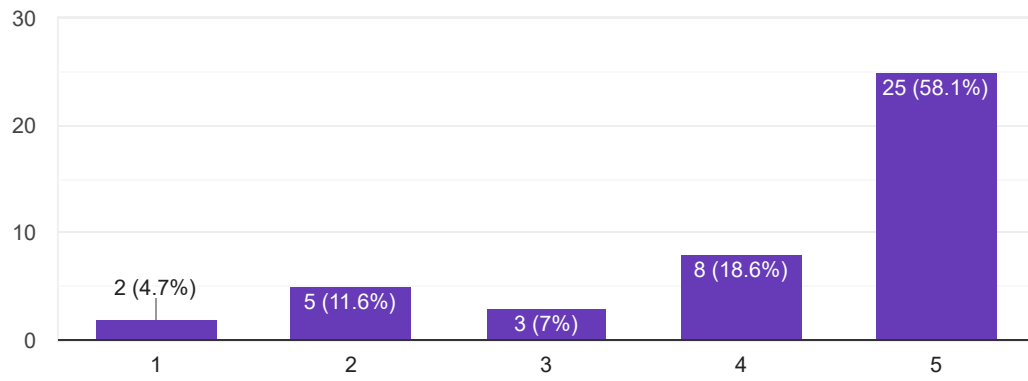

ONLY FOR THE MOBILITY PARTICIPANTS: I have improved my communication in English.

43 responses

ONLY FOR THE MOBILITY PARTICIPANTS: I can work in teams more easily now.

43 responses

This content is neither created nor endorsed by Google. Report Abuse - Terms of Service - Privacy Policy

Google Forms

